ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing this project on “Images of Women in the novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai” has been extremely fascinating and extremely rewarding. I would like to thank my friends and colleagues who have contributed for the final outcome in many ways.

I would like to express my very great appreciation to Dr. S.N..Gavali for his valuable and constructive suggestions during the planning and development of this research project. His willingness to give his valuable time so generously has been very much appreciated.

I am also obliged to Principal Dr. L D Bhor for giving me this opportunity to work on two great women novelists. I greatly acknowledge the financial assistance provided by the Principal of my college in the form of SEED MONEY.

Finally I wish to thank my family members and specially my dear heart, for her support and encouragement throughout my study.

Question paper - March 2015

March 2015.

80

Q. 11. Attempt any one from (a) and one from (b) in about 150 words each:

a) 1) How does Kalam describe his achievement as a scientist as an act of god?

1) Creation of planet: planet is beautiful. Each person lives in this planet created by God to fulfill everyone's dream. Dream is in every human being and wishes to fulfil and complete with satisfaction. According to Abdul Kalam, whatever he has learned from his father, it is appreciated and learned thoroughly about the power of God.

2) Achievement as a Scientist:

Abdul Kalam describes his achievement on this beautiful planet which is created by God. God's will and help is very precious. God has expressed his own will God had showered his blessing to Kalam. Abdul Kalam became a great scientist and was honoured many awards for science and technology all over the world. Abdul Kalam never felt that he is small and helpless. It's his efforts that fulfilled all his efforts, successfully.

b) 1) How does advertising have an adverse effect on the mind and life of the young?

→ The writer Herman Wouk wants to create advertisement as a decent work.

① Misuse of language: A person given the job of advertising needs to be perfect of language. This kind of mistake can go on generation after generation.

② Pattern of Advertise: The trade is by lovely youth who will go from place to place with goods to sell. The agency must try to prevent so this sort of difficult situation can be avoided.

③ The effect of Advertise: This peculiar situation is not controlled. There is none to stop the customers from passing comments.

Q 2) Attempt any one from (a) and one from (b) in about 150 words each:

a) 1) Describe Ivan Dmititch's worries about his wife's behaviour after winning the lottery.

→ ① Ivan's Dream in short: Ivan started dreaming of his own desires if he wins the prize money. His ideas are for betterment of life, health and children.

② wife's Behaviour - Imagination: When Ivan came to know that his wife is also interested to go abroad he was surprised but not satisfied to accept the same dream.

③ Relatives: Ivan's wife's relatives also will arise whenever they will come to know about winning of prize money. They will come and will demand their requirements. The brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts all will come and speak with insincere praise.

b) i) What does a person feel when/she gives away a pound note, according to Lawrence?

→ The poet doubts that there exists a human in this world who hands out a pound note to someone without feeling a pang at heart. No matter how noble he may feel while giving away that note, his heart always wishes if only he could do all that good without having to take out a note from his own pocket. And when that note turns to a ten-pound note, we experience real tremors within us. We tremble from inside giving away that note, as if we have been robbed. Money makes us kneel in front of itself. It makes us fearful, and a sense of apprehension and stress grips us as we try to overcome a loss as materialistic and small as ten-pounds. It has an exaggerating power to influence our life.

Q 3. Attempt any one from (a) & one from (b) in about 150 words each:

a) i) Explain how Indra Nooyi spearheaded vital and dramatic changes to the policies of the company she heads.

→ Indra Nooyi in the beginning of 10 years she directed company's global strategy and was the primary architect of its restructuring with changes. It gives the idea of selling the investment of the capable items into a successful manner such as public offering of company owned bottling operation into Pepsi Bottling Group (PBG), it gained Tropicana, etc. The new other items.

Dramatic changes: Nooyi have a feeling of doing business perfectly. she was also giving idea for the change in the Company but it needed approval of the changes. she brought vital Gyakar and Cratorade business to pepsi co then Nooyi has been driving Critical Gross business.

b) i) How does R.K. Narayan describe the situation of English in India?

→ The author R.K. Narayan is one of the best Indian novelists in English language.

Situation of English in India: According to author who is much knowledgable regarding English. Indians follow, the british English it is helpful since for meaning of difficult words they can go through the dictionary. Then only learning English will be easy for all sorts of students all over India. 'Practice makes a man Perfect'. Every one whether they are learnship in schools or colleges they must learn nicely so that when they will work in companies or office where every body requires to speak in English.

Q 4 Attempt any one from (a) and 1 from (b) in about 150 words each:

a) ① Explain the significance and symbolism of the woodrose creeper in the story.

→ In the short story by abhuri Chaya devi, it nicely deals a sheltered life as an Indian housewife and ageing mother. The narrator did not know the woodrose plant and she was unfamiliar with the creeper which has planted in the yard. But afterwards when she saw the flower she was attached to the plant. It was nicely said by daughter-in-law fresh rose is youth and woodrose symbolise old age. she wanted to show age and youth together.

Significance of woodrose: Woodrose creeper has been given importance because the narrator, the mother-in-law of Kamala were enjoying the plant, and flowers. But her son Geopal had cut the creeper completely. His mother the narrator becomes sad because she liked the flower and lots of flowers were going to bloom with those flowers.

b) 1) What does the poet ask for in her prayer in "The Soul's Prayer?"
