Report

Date: 23rd Aug. 2016

Time: 12:00 pm

Faculty Development Program on “Web Information Literacy: Library Orientation Programme” was organized by IQAC and Library Department.

The session of the workshop was chaired by Prin. Dr. Bhor L. D (Principal C. D. Jain College of Commerce, Shrirampur.) Trainer of the session was Dr. Kumbhar Rajendra (HoD, Savitribai Phule Pune, and University of Pune)

Session started with the brief introduction of the Faculty Development Program by Librarian Mr. Vivek M More

The trainer of this program has emphasised the importance library. He stated that “The library is a pivotal part of the education and learning process”. Its very existence depends on the usage of its resources by the users-students, researchers, teachers and the students at large. User orientation aims at promoting and maximising their use by the students. It is central for the whole purpose of the library and the effective utilisation of the information resources. It is about the information and communication process and involves complete interaction, communication with the library. He focused on following points

- OPAC / WEB OPAC
- E-Content
- Portals
- Open Access Journals (DOAJ/ DOAB) special reference to Jaykar Library Portal
- Research Gate/ Academia. edu
- Virtual Reference Service
- Science Direct/ EBSCO / PROQUEST/ NPTEL
- Citation Index, APA/ Chicago Style

Principal Dr. L.D.Bhor concluded the session with remarks on Library Culture in Universities and colleges. Library is the soul of education system.

Prof. Y.V. Chandratre proposed vote of thanks.
